UNIT I – TOURISM (5 MARK ANSWERS)

1. Evolution of Tourism through the Ages

Introduction

Tourism has existed since ancient times. Initially, people travelled for survival, trade, religious purposes, and exploration. Over time, improvements in transportation, communication, and economic development transformed travel into leisure tourism.

Stages in the Evolution of Tourism

1. Ancient Period

- People travelled for trade, pilgrimage, education, and warfare.
- Egyptians, Greeks, Romans, and Indians travelled extensively.
- Pilgrimages to holy places such as Jerusalem, Mecca, and Varanasi were common.

2. Medieval Period

- Religious travel became dominant.
- Pilgrimages to sacred places increased.
- Merchants travelled along routes such as the Silk Road.
- Travel was difficult due to poor roads and political instability.

3. Renaissance Period

- Revival of learning encouraged educational travel.
- Wealthy Europeans travelled to study art, science, and culture.
- Travel became a symbol of education and refinement.

4. Age of Grand Tours

- Popular during the 17th and 18th centuries.
- Young European nobles travelled across France, Italy, and other countries.
- Purpose was education, cultural exposure, and social development.

5. Modern Tourism

- Industrial Revolution introduced railways, steamships, and automobiles.
- Paid holidays and improved income encouraged leisure travel.
- Air transport and digital technology further expanded tourism globally.

Importance

- Promotes cultural exchange.
- Supports economic growth.
- Generates employment.
- Strengthens international relations.

2. Renaissance

Definition

The Renaissance was a cultural movement between the 14th and 17th centuries that marked the revival of art, literature, education, and scientific thinking in Europe.

Features

- Revival of classical Greek and Roman culture.
- Growth of education.
- Scientific discoveries.
- Development of art and architecture.
- Increased curiosity about different cultures.

Contribution to Tourism

- Encouraged educational travel.
- Increased visits to universities.
- Improved maps and navigation.
- Growth of cultural tourism.
- Increased interest in museums and historical monuments.

Importance

- Laid the foundation for modern tourism.
- Promoted international cultural exchange.
- Improved transportation and exploration.

3. Age of Grand Tours

Definition

The Grand Tour was a traditional educational journey undertaken by wealthy young Europeans during the 17th and 18th centuries to gain cultural knowledge and social experience.

Characteristics

- Lasted several months or years.
- Mainly undertaken by aristocrats.
- Included visits to France, Italy, Switzerland, and Germany.
- Focused on art, architecture, language, and history.

Objectives

- Complete education.
- Learn foreign languages.
- Appreciate art and culture.
- Build social connections.
- Develop leadership qualities.

Importance

- Promoted cultural tourism.
- Increased demand for accommodation.
- Encouraged guide services.
- Developed tourism infrastructure.

4. Socio-Cultural Processes and Development of Tourism in the Modern Age

Meaning

Socio-cultural processes refer to social and cultural changes that influence tourism development.

Major Factors

Education

Higher literacy increases awareness and interest in travel.

Urbanization

City life creates stress, increasing demand for vacations.

Higher Income

People have greater disposable income for leisure travel.

Paid Holidays

Employees receive annual leave, encouraging tourism.

Technology

Internet and smartphones make travel planning easier.

Cultural Exchange

People wish to experience different traditions and lifestyles.

Impact

- Growth of domestic tourism.
- Increase in international tourism.
- Development of heritage tourism.
- Expansion of hospitality services.

5. Factors Affecting Growth of Tourism

Introduction

Many factors influence the growth and development of tourism.

Economic Factors

- Higher income
- Economic stability
- Currency exchange rates

Social Factors

- Education
- Lifestyle changes
- Leisure time

Political Factors

- Peace and security
- Government policies
- Visa regulations

Technological Factors

- Air transport
- Internet booking

- Online payment systems

Environmental Factors

- Climate
- Natural attractions
- Environmental conservation

Infrastructure

- Roads
- Airports
- Hotels
- Communication facilities

6. Tourism Boom in the 19th and 20th Centuries

Introduction

Tourism expanded rapidly during the 19th and 20th centuries because of industrialization and technological progress.

Reasons

Industrial Revolution

Improved production and higher incomes.

Railways

Made travel faster and cheaper.

Steamships

Connected continents.

Automobiles

Provided flexible travel.

Air Transport

Reduced travel time significantly.

Paid Leave

Workers could take vacations.

Thomas Cook

Organized the first package tours.

Results

- Growth of hotels.
- Development of tourist destinations.
- Expansion of international travel.
- Increase in employment.

7. Rise of International Tourism

Meaning

International tourism refers to travel across national borders for leisure, business, education, or other purposes.

Reasons

- Affordable air travel.
- Globalization.
- Better communication.
- Visa facilitation.
- International organizations.
- Growth of multinational businesses.

Benefits

- Foreign exchange earnings.
- Employment generation.
- Cultural exchange.
- International goodwill.
- Infrastructure development.

Challenges

- Environmental pollution.
- Over-tourism.
- Cultural commercialization.
- Health risks.

8. Definition and Concept of Tourism

Definition

According to UN Tourism, tourism comprises the activities of persons travelling and staying outside their usual environment for not more than one consecutive year for leisure, business, or other purposes.

Concept

Tourism involves:

- Travel
- Temporary stay
- Recreation
- Business
- Education
- Cultural exchange

Characteristics

- Temporary movement.
- No permanent employment at the destination.
- Voluntary travel.
- Consumption of tourism services.

Importance

- Economic development.
- Employment.
- Cultural understanding.
- Regional development.

9. Types of Tourism

Meaning

Tourism can be classified according to purpose, destination, and nature of travel.

Types

Based on Destination

- Domestic Tourism
- International Tourism
- Inbound Tourism

- Outbound Tourism

Based on Purpose

- Leisure Tourism
- Business Tourism
- Religious Tourism
- Medical Tourism
- Educational Tourism
- Adventure Tourism
- Eco Tourism
- Cultural Tourism
- Sports Tourism

Based on Duration

- Long-term tourism
- Short-term tourism
- Excursion

Importance

- Meets different tourist needs.
- Encourages destination development.
- Supports economic growth.

Conclusion

Different types of tourism cater to different interests and contribute to diversified tourism development.

---

10. Tourism as an Industry

Meaning

Tourism is a service industry that provides products and services to travellers through transportation, accommodation, food, entertainment, and attractions.

Characteristics

- Service-oriented.
- Labour-intensive.

- Seasonal.
- Perishable.
- Interdependent.
- Customer-focused.

Components

- Accommodation
- Transport
- Attractions
- Travel agencies
- Tour operators
- Hospitality services

Importance

- Employment generation.
- Foreign exchange earnings.
- Infrastructure development.
- Regional development.
- Cultural preservation.

UNIT II – TOURISM

1. Tourism – Definition, Types and Determinants

Definition

Tourism refers to the temporary movement of people from their usual place of residence to another destination for leisure, business, education, health, religion, or other purposes, without engaging in permanent employment at the destination.

According to UN Tourism, tourism comprises the activities of persons travelling and staying outside their usual environment for not more than one consecutive year for leisure, business, and other purposes.

Types of Tourism

1. Domestic Tourism

Travel within one's own country.
Example: A resident of Kerala visiting Goa.

2. International Tourism

Travel across national borders.
It includes:

- Inbound Tourism: Foreign visitors entering a country.
- Outbound Tourism: Residents travelling to another country.

3. Leisure Tourism

Travel for relaxation and recreation.

4. Business Tourism

Travel for meetings, conferences, exhibitions, and official work.

5. Religious Tourism

Travel to places of religious importance.

6. Medical Tourism

Travel for medical treatment and healthcare services.

7. Adventure Tourism

Travel involving adventure activities such as trekking, rafting, and mountaineering.

8. Eco-Tourism

Responsible travel to natural areas while conserving the environment.

Determinants of Tourism

The major factors influencing tourism are:

- Economic conditions
- Disposable income
- Leisure time
- Political stability
- Safety and security
- Transportation facilities
- Technological development
- Climate
- Government policies
- Tourist attractions

Importance

- Generates employment
- Earns foreign exchange
- Promotes cultural exchange
- Encourages regional development
- Improves infrastructure

Tourism is a dynamic service industry influenced by economic, social, political, and environmental factors.

2. Difference between Travel and Tourism

Introduction

Although the terms travel and tourism are often used together, they differ in purpose, duration, and objectives.

Travel	Tourism
Movement from one place to another	Travel combined with temporary stay
May be for work, education, migration, or business	Mainly for leisure, recreation, business, religion, etc.
May involve permanent relocation	Temporary movement only
No tourism services may be used	Involves tourism services like hotels, transport, attractions
Broader concept	Subset of travel

Similarities

- Both involve movement of people.
- Both require transportation.
- Both contribute to economic activities.

All tourism involves travel, but not all travel qualifies as tourism.

3. Excursion

Meaning

An excursion is a short journey made for pleasure, education, or recreation without an overnight stay.

Characteristics

- Short duration
- No overnight accommodation
- Usually one-day trip
- Organized individually or in groups
- Educational or recreational purpose

Types

- School excursion
- Industrial visit
- Family outing
- Religious excursion

Importance

- Promotes learning
- Reduces stress
- Encourages social interaction
- Affordable form of tourism

Example

Students visiting a museum and returning home the same day.

Excursions are important forms of recreational and educational travel.

4. Holiday

Meaning

A holiday is a period during which people take a break from their regular work or studies for rest, recreation, or travel.

Characteristics

- Planned leisure time
- Temporary break from routine
- May involve domestic or international travel
- Improves physical and mental well-being

Types

- Summer holidays
- Winter holidays
- Family holidays
- Adventure holidays
- Religious holidays

Importance

- Relieves stress
- Strengthens family relationships
- Promotes tourism
- Improves productivity after returning to work

5. Sightseeing

Meaning

Sightseeing refers to visiting places of interest within a destination.

Features

- Short-duration activity
- Includes historical, cultural, and natural attractions
- Usually guided
- Major component of tourism

Examples

- Taj Mahal
- Kerala Backwaters
- Mysore Palace
- Qutub Minar

Importance

- Enhances tourist satisfaction
- Generates revenue
- Promotes cultural understanding

6. Tourist

Definition

A tourist is a person who travels outside their usual environment and stays for at least 24 hours but less than one year for leisure, business, education, or other purposes without engaging in paid employment at the destination.

Characteristics

- Temporary visitor
- Uses tourism services
- Contributes to local economy
- Travels voluntarily

Types

- Domestic tourist
- International tourist
- Leisure tourist
- Business tourist
- Medical tourist
- Religious tourist

Importance

Tourists create demand for hotels, transport, restaurants, entertainment, and local products.

7. Mass Tourism

Meaning

Mass tourism refers to large-scale movement of tourists to popular destinations, usually during peak seasons.

Characteristics

- Large number of visitors
- Package tours
- Standardized services
- Affordable prices
- Seasonal concentration

Advantages

- Employment generation
- Increased revenue
- Infrastructure development
- Regional economic growth

Disadvantages

- Overcrowding
- Pollution
- Environmental degradation
- Loss of local culture
- Pressure on natural resources

8. Significance of Tourism

Economic Significance

- Generates employment
- Increases national income
- Earns foreign exchange
- Promotes entrepreneurship

Social Significance

- Encourages cultural exchange
- Improves quality of life
- Promotes national integration

Environmental Significance

- Supports conservation
- Creates awareness about biodiversity

Political Significance

- Strengthens international relations
- Improves diplomatic cooperation

9. Tourism Systems

Meaning

A tourism system refers to the interaction of different elements that work together to provide a complete tourism experience.

Components

1. Tourist (Demand)

The person who travels.

2. Generating Region

The place where the tourist originates.

3. Transit Route

The transportation system connecting destinations.

4. Destination Region

The place visited by tourists.

5. Tourism Industry

Hotels, restaurants, travel agencies, transport, attractions, and tour operators.

6. Supporting Environment

Government, infrastructure, technology, and local community.

Importance

- Helps understand tourism planning.
- Improves destination management.
- Supports sustainable tourism development.

10. The 5 A's of Tourism

The success of a tourist destination depends on the following 5 A's:

1. Attractions

Natural and man-made places that attract tourists.

Examples:

- Beaches
- Wildlife sanctuaries
- Historical monuments

2. Accessibility

Ease of reaching the destination.

Examples:

- Roads
- Railways
- Airports

3. Accommodation

Facilities where tourists stay.

Examples:

- Hotels
- Resorts
- Homestays

4. Amenities

Additional facilities provided to tourists.

Examples:

- Restaurants
- Banks
- Hospitals
- Shopping centres
- Internet

5. Activities

Experiences offered to tourists.

Examples:

- Trekking
- Boating
- Wildlife safari
- Cultural festivals

Importance

The 5 A's improve tourist satisfaction and determine the competitiveness of a destination.

11. Motivations and Deterrents for Travel

Travel Motivation

Travel motivation refers to the reasons that encourage people to travel.

Major Motivations

- Relaxation
- Recreation
- Adventure
- Business
- Education
- Medical treatment
- Religious pilgrimage
- Visiting friends and relatives
- Cultural exploration
- Shopping

Travel Deterrents

Travel deterrents are factors that discourage people from travelling.

Major Deterrents

- High travel costs
- Lack of time
- Political instability
- Terrorism
- Natural disasters
- Poor health
- Visa restrictions
- Language barriers
- Safety concerns
- Pandemic outbreaks

Importance

Understanding travel motivations and deterrents helps tourism organizations design better products and marketing strategies.